

Office of the Mayor

Proclamation

WHEREAS, law enforcement officers across the United States serve with unwavering dedication, bravery, and professionalism, putting their lives on the line each day to protect others, uphold justice, and preserve peace in the communities they serve; and

WHEREAS, National Law Enforcement Week, held annually in Branson, Missouri, is a time to honor and recognize the service and sacrifice for all members of the law enforcement community – past and present – from across the nation, as well as to show appreciation for their families who support them; and

WHEREAS, this week serves as a meaningful opportunity for citizens and communities to come together in unity and gratitude, strengthening relationships between the public and those who have sworn to protect it, while also fostering respect for the important role law enforcement plays in our nation; and

WHEREAS, organized by a registered 501(c)(3) nonprofit, National Law Enforcement Week reflects our shared commitment to support and stand with law enforcement officers everywhere, with proceeds benefiting law enforcement families and related causes;

NOW THEREFORE, I, Larry D. Milton, Mayor of the City of Branson, Missouri, along with the Board of Aldermen, do hereby proclaim June 14 through 21, 2025, as:

National Law Enforcement Week

In Branson, Missouri

In Testimony therefore, I have hereunto set my hand and caused to be affixed the seal of the City of Branson in the State of Missouri.

Larry D. Milton, Mayor
