FACTS:

On behalf of the Mayor, Board of Aldermen, City Administrator, and City Staff, it is my honor to announce Public Works Operations Manager; Ben Stabo; as the City of Branson's May 2025 "Service and Excellence" Employee of the Month.

Ben is being nominated for his outstanding leadership and dedication during a six-week period in which he stepped in to oversee the FM Shop. In addition to his normal responsibilities, Ben took on the duties of the FM Shop Supervisor without hesitation or complaint. He proactively prepared the office and facility to ensure a smooth transition for the incoming supervisor/manager. Thanks to his leadership and attitude, operations continued smoothly, customer service saw noticeable improvements, and employee morale received a meaningful boost. Ben's initiative, professionalism and positive influence embody the spirit of public service. His efforts have not gone unnoticed, and he is truly deserving of this recognition.

Ben provides outstanding leadership and embodies the City of Branson values of Excellence and Service. He is an outstanding example of the values held high by the City of Branson.

Congratulations and keep up the good work!
