

Office of the Mayor

Proclamation

WHEREAS, it is recognized that Terry Bradshaw first entered the national spotlight as the Number 1 draft pick in the 1970 NFL draft as a quarterback out of Louisiana Tech, he was selected by the Pittsburgh Steelers and led a successful winning reign over a decade. The 1970s Steelers are to this day one of the NFL's more iconic dynasties with 4 Super Bowl championships. This winning career led Bradshaw to be enshrined in the Pro Football Hall of Fame; and

WHEREAS, shortly after his playing career, Bradshaw became one of the most well-known NFL analysts for over 30 years and was inducted into the Sports Broadcasting Hall of Fame. However, this wasn't the only entertainment sector that Bradshaw would excel in. Bradshaw would end up recording 6 musical albums in the genres of Country and Gospel music and have his version of "I'm So Lonesome I Could Cry" chart on the Billboard Top 20; and

WHEREAS, Terry's career spanning football, television, films (notably in Cannonball Run alongside his dear friend and Branson legend Mel Tillis), and music would earn him a star on the Hollywood Walk of Fame and lead him all the way to the Clay Cooper Theatre in Branson, Missouri; and

WHEREAS, Mr. Bradshaw never misses an opportunity to tell the country how much he loves our community;

NOW THEREFORE, I, Larry D. Milton, Mayor of the City of Branson, Missouri, do hereby proclaim December 13th through December 20th 2024 as:

Terry Bradshaw Week

In Branson, Missouri

In Testimony therefore, I have hereunto set my hand and caused to be affixed the seal of the City of Branson in the State of Missouri.
